I live in a cozy house with different rooms. My bedroom is upstairs, just below the top floor. It has a comfy bed and a big window that lets in lots of sunlight. The bathroom is next to my bedroom and it has a big shower and a bathtub. In the baby's room, we have a crib and colorful toys. On the main floor, we have a work area where I do my job from home. It has a desk, a computer, and a shelf for books. The living room is where we relax and watch TV. It has a comfy couch and a table. Next to it, we have a place to eat with a big table. The kitchen is fully equipped with a stove, fridge, and lots of space for cooking. The laundry room is downstairs, where we have a washing machine and a dryer. Finally, we have a big space to park our car called the garage. I love my house and all its different parts!
