

Module 7 - Unit 6

Fecha: _____

Nombres: _____ Apellidos: _____

Institución: _____ Curso: _____

Read the following love letter and answer the questions:

My Dearest Sussan,

I wanted to take a moment to express my deepest feelings for you. From the very first time we met, you captured my heart and filled my life with immeasurable joy and love. Your presence in my life has brought an incredible sense of happiness and completeness. Every day spent by your side is a blessing, and I cherish the moments we share together.

Who is the letter addressed to?

- a) John
- b) Sarah
- c) Sussan
- d) David

How does the writer feel about their partner?

- a) Angry
- b) Indifferent
- c) Frustrated
- d) Deeply in love

How has the partner impacted the writer's life?

- a) Brought sadness
- b) Caused stress
- c) Brought immeasurable joy and love
- d) Created a sense of loneliness

What does the writer cherish?

- a) Arguments
- b) Loneliness
- c) Moments shared together
- d) Sadness

Read the following story and create an end making use of modal verbs.

The Forbidden Love

In a quaint town, where traditions and rules must be strictly followed, two souls couldn't have imagined that their paths would cross. Emily, a young woman from a respected family, must have known that her parents would choose a suitable partner for her. However, destiny had other plans.

One evening, while attending a traditional town festival, Emily couldn't believe her eyes when she laid them on Jack, a free-spirited artist who couldn't be more different from the expected suitors. There was an instant connection between them, but Emily knew that her heart shouldn't be drawn to someone her parents wouldn't approve of.

As days turned into weeks, Emily and Jack couldn't help but steal glances at each other from afar. Their secret encounters in the town square, where they shouldn't have met, became the highlight of their days. Jack couldn't help but admire Emily's grace and charm, while Emily couldn't resist Jack's passionate soul.

The town's strict societal norms should have kept them apart, but their love for each other couldn't be denied. Emily must have wrestled with her feelings, torn between duty and desire. She shouldn't have fallen for Jack, but love doesn't always follow the rules.

Create an end

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---