On my birthday, I have several objects that I use to celebrate. Firstly, I wear a colorful party hat on my head. Secondly, I place a big birthday cake with candles on top on the table. Thirdly, I arrange a table in the middle of the room where I put the presents that my family and friends give me. The presents go under the table until it's time to open them. Fourthly, I position a plate on the table where I put a slice of cake. The cake goes onto the plate, and I use a fork to eat it. Lastly, I hang colorful balloons from the ceiling. The balloons float above the room, making it look festive and joyful.

My friend Sarah loves animals, but she doesn't have any pets at home. She used to have a cat, but unfortunately, it passed away last year. Now, she doesn't want to have another pet because she travels a lot for work and wouldn't be able to take care of it properly. Instead, she enjoys visiting animal shelters and helping out by volunteering her time. Despite not having a pet of her own, Sarah still has a big heart for animals and loves spending time with them whenever she can.
